The magazines regularly subscribed for by the Association include Harper's Monthly, Century, Scribner's, Review of Reviews, Country Life, Current Literature, St. Nicholas, McClure's, Cosmopolitan, Success, Good Housekeeping and Harper's Bazar.

Through the kindness of friends of the library the Scientific American, Literary Digest, Dumb Animals and extra copy of Bazar are placed regularly upon the table. Magazines may be taken out by the public, the time limit being a week.

From the proceeds of the Henry M. Hooker Fund the following named volumes have been purchased the past year:

IN MEMORIAM

Capt. William B. Kimball died Jan. 22, 1908, having served as a member of the School Committee for 25 years. His genial manner and cheerful nature always won for him a place in the hearts of the teachers, children and general public. His was a sincere work for the schools, in which he always took pride, laboring most diligently for their success. He will long be remembered by the boys and girls because of his frequent habit of entertaining them with his thrilling war stories.

He rests, having achieved the highest success that man can earn from his fellows—the confidence and respect of old and young.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The School Committee would respectfully submit the following report:

At the Annual Town Meeting held March 18, 1907, Grace Hale Stevens was re-elected a member of the School Committee for three years. The Committee met at the home of Mrs. Stevens and organized, electing Wm. B. Kimball as Chairman, Grace Hale Stevens as Secretary and Treasurer. General charge of all school buildings and supplies of wood and coal was given to Henry M. Downing.

In May the School Committee of both Belcher-town and Enfield held the annual meeting for the purpose of choosing a Superintendent of Schools. Geo. F. Ellinwood was re-elected. Mrs. L. A. Gatchell was chosen as Supervisor of Music.

In September our much esteemed friend and fellow member, Wm. B. Kimball, resigned his office because of ill health.

Your Committee appreciate the support given them and trust you will become better acquainted with the work because of frequent visits to the schools.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:

I have the honor of submitting to you my second annual report, it being the fourth in the series of reports by the Superintendents of Enfield.

During the year there have been three changes in our teaching force: Miss May E. Rice, a graduate of the Fitchburg Normal, was engaged at No. 7 at the opening of the Spring term; Miss Emma Parker began teaching at No 6 in September; Mrs. L. A. Getchell, Supervisor of Music, began her work also in September. These teachers entered upon their work with earnestness and good results are being obtained.

The recent introduction of new arithmetics and physiologies marks an epoch in our schools, for Enfield can now boast that all the textbooks used in her schools are modern and up-to-date. With such good equipment and with bright, intelligent boys and girls it is simply up to the teachers to turn out of our schools a product of which we may be proud. It should be the policy of a community to have its schools run on business principles, to have them rarely closed except for prescribed vacations, and to convert the classrooms into workshops, where earnest work is always being done and things are being accomplished. In the grammar grades it is essential that pupils do some studying at home. Parents should see to it that their children bring home their books and spend 30 to 60 minutes upon their lessons daily. Thus parents have an opportunity of cooperating with the schools, and in this way a habit of home study is formed, without which children are greatly handicapped when they reach the high school.

MUSIC AND DRAWING

Last year our music supervisor visited the Center schools and Smiths, but since Sept. 1 music has been introduced into all the schools. The supervisor is at the Center schools each Thursday morning and in the afternoon visits schools Nos. 5, 6 and 7. Good progress is being made and it is expected that a public exhibition of the work of the pupils will be given during the spring. The drawing in our schools ought also to be under supervision. If our children are to have the same privileges as those in surrounding towns we cannot long defer action in this matter. It would cost the town not over $180. I believe some forms of manual training work such as paper cutting, braiding, sewing or cardboard construction could also be given by the same instructor. I therefore recommend that beginning with the next school year, we engage the services of a drawing supervisor. In the near future we shall find it most practical to fit up one of the basement rooms in the grammar school building with benches, where the boys in grades 6, 7, 8 and 9 can be taught how to use tools and can follow a thorough course in manual training. The expense of equipment would not be great. Our chief obstacle would be to find an instructor, but it might be possible to secure one by combining with other towns as we do at present in music.

Inasmuch as the majority of the boys of Enfield take up a mechanical line of work in after life, it certainly is most practical to shape their school education with this in view, and to give particular attention to the training of the hand.

EYE AND EAR TEST

The following table shows the test as given in the last two years :

	1906-7	1907-8
Number examined	151	157
Number found defective in sight	19	16
Number found defective in hearing	4	2

I also wish to recommend (and my recommendation has the endorsement of the School Physician) that the law concerning vaccination be enforced in our schools, commencing Sept. 1, 1908. The law reads as follows:

Chapter 44, Section 6. (As amended by Chapter 371, Acts of 1906, and Chapter 215, Acts of 1907.)

"A child who has not been vaccinated shall not be admitted to a public school, except upon presentation of a certificate granted for cause stated therein, signed by a regular practicing physician that he is not a fit subject for vaccination."

IN CONCLUSION

A table of statistics and the roll of honor is appended to this report.

In this age when parents do not, as a rule, visit the schools, as we wish they did, it is gratifying to learn through conversation that they have a keen interest, nevertheless, and that they appreciate the efforts of your humble servant to improve the schools and make them more efficient.

Whatever success, however, has been attained during the past year is due to your hearty support and the co-operation of the teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. ELLINWOOD,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE:

In submitting the first report of medical examination of our public schools I take pleasure in expressing much satisfaction at the general good health and physical condition found among the pupils and it reflects credit on their home life and surroundings.

There has been no epidemic of disease and only a few cases of infectious or parasitic nature necessitating absence from school till cured. The most frequent defects found have been those located in the mouth, nose and throat: catarrh, enlarged tonsils and decayed teeth. If parents would instruct the children in the toilet of the nose and throat, not omitting the daily use of the tooth brush and extraction of decayed or loose teeth, much disease would be prevented. To quote from the Suggestions issued by the Massachusetts Board of Education: "Unclean mouths promote the growth of disease germs and cavities in the teeth are centers of infection. Pus from diseased teeth seriously interferes with digestion and poisons the system. It causes a lowering of vitality and renders mental effort difficult."

The schoolhouses are all in good condition and the general hygienic surroundings satisfactory.

WILLARD B. SEGUR, M. D.,
School Physician.

PUBLIC LIBRARY REPORT

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association are pleased to report increased use of the library and appreciation of its value, as shown by the patronage of the past year, an average of 150 books per week being drawn.

The following magazines furnished by the Association are found on the table: Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Scribner, McClure, St. Nicholas, Cosmopolitan, The World's Work, Book News, Success, Country Life, The Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping. The Scientific American and Dumb Animals are contributed by thoughtful individuals. These furnish fresh, varied and instructive reading suited to individual tastes, and are fully appreciated by the young people, especially who gather round the table on "library evening."

After remaining on the table a month the magazines may be taken to the home for one week if desired. The generous appropriation made by the town, with the income of the dog fund, have enabled us to add more than 200 volumes to the Library the past year, while the income of the Hooker fund has furnished 20 valuable volumes of Science, History and Travel. From the mass of Modern Fiction the Directors have selected with care from standard writers, and also from writers of growing reputation, such books as are of healthy tone, and will not only interest, but stimulate and instruct the youthful mind.

Good books create an atmosphere for themselves. The habit of reading is formed, and a good taste for good reading developed by contact and association with them. The educational value of a good library cannot be overestimated not only for the young but those of maturer years, who will find on our shelves standard books on almost any subject they may wish to study, while the librarians are obliging and willing to render any service possible.

If more of our townspeople would become members of the Association we are sure they would find it a mutual benefit to both themselves and the Library. Carlyle says, "The scholar finds food for thought and means of enjoyment; the person of leisure passes pleasant hours in company of an interesting book."

Hoping for the continuance of your favor and appropriation,

Respectfully submitted,

LORAINÉ ANDREWS SMITH,

President of the Association.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

A joint meeting of the Selectmen and two members of the School Board met in the Selectmen's room, Saturday evening, March 23, 1908, to fill the vacancy in the School Board caused by the resignation of Mr. Henry M. Downing. At this meeting P. R. Stratton was chosen the third member of the School Board. The Committee met in school room No. 2 for organization, and elected P. R. Stratton Chairman, and Mrs. Grace Hale Stevens Secretary and Treasurer. General charge of all school buildings was given to Mrs. H. H. Barlow. Mr. George F. Ellinwood resigned his position as Superintendent of Schools, and at the spring meeting Mr. Alvin R. Lewis was elected Superintendent. He has given the town faithful and efficient service. Mrs. L. A. Gatchell was elected Supervisor of Music and Drawing. The Committee feel that the schools are in excellent condition, and that the scholars have made good progress in all branches of study. The parents are urged to visit the schools and take an interest in the education of their children.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:

I have the honor of submitting for your consideration my first annual report, which is the fifth annual report of the Superintendent of Schools.

When entering upon my work at the beginning of the school year I found the schools in charge of an efficient corps of teachers willing to work hard to improve the good condition of the schools.

The per cent. of attendance for the year ending in June, 1908, is 95, but I call your attention to the large number of cases of tardiness and dismissal. Although there are ninety-seven fewer tardy marks than the year before, yet one hundred and eighty-three, with an enrollment of one hundred and seventy-four pupils, are too many. Punctuality is an essential element of success. If a pupil is allowed to be late to school he will form a habit that will greatly interfere with his success in life.

I hope the teachers and parents will work together in training the boys and girls to be punctual.

Besides the teachers' meetings my work has been with the teachers during my visits to the schools. Special attention has been given to reading and arithmetic.

Reading or getting thought from the written or printed page is the most important subject taught. Unless one can readily get the thought expressed his progress in any subject will be slow. There is evidence of some improvement in reading.

In arithmetic we are striving to give the pupils a thorough training in the fundamentals; accuracy, neatness, and quick work are considered necessary, and a clear explanation in good English of the steps taken in the solution of problems is required. The pupils are taught to make out bills, write receipts, orders, notes, checks and all common business forms. The work is made as practical as possible.

Spelling should be taught thoroughly. The pupils should not only be able to spell correctly, but should be able to use the words properly in sentences.

In nine years of thirty-six weeks our pupils should be able to spell and to use correctly at least all the common words in the language.

It is often claimed that the pupils of twenty-five or thirty years ago could spell better than those of to-day, but examination papers of past years and other material still in existence, are evidences that spelling has improved and there is still opportunity for improvement.

There are fourteen pupils who are attending the Athol high school. These pupils as a whole are doing fair, and a few excellent work. That they can be in school only about one-half the session each day necessarily interferes with their progress. There seems to be no way at present to improve this condition. It is therefore important that no pupil be allowed to enter the high school who is not well prepared to do the work.

The music and drawing in our schools are under the direction of an efficient teacher. We are fortunate in being able to place these subjects in charge of one who is able to do good work in both. The citizens were given an opportunity to judge of the work in music and drawing at an exhibition in December. Drawing and raffia work were introduced at the beginning of the year therefore the work has been elementary, but good progress has been made, and the work another year will be advanced.

It is our purpose to exhibit the school work, including music and drawing, during the spring term. This will consist of the regular work of the pupils during the school year. No special preparation will be made for it. I call your attention to the report of the teacher of music and drawing.

The sight and hearing tests have been made as is required by law. No notices were sent to parents of those pupils who were slightly deficient in sight, nor of those who have received treatment.

Number of pupils tested	155
“ deficient in eyesight	11
“ deficient in hearing	8
“ of parents notified	6

In our school work we are endeavoring not only to develop the mind and train the hand of the pupils, but we are trying to lead them to acquire those virtues that make for character—honesty, neatness, purity, kindness and a reverence for all that is sacred.

In closing I take this opportunity to thank you for your hearty support, the teachers for their co-operation and the citizens for their courtesy.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

REPORT OF THE MUSIC TEACHER

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

A backward glance over the year's work in music is most encouraging. Last year, being practically the beginning, all pupils had to start on first grade work, the upper grades being able to cover in one year the work of four or five, as planned in the outline of the Weaver Method. This year a great effort is being made to bring each grade up to the Weaver Course of Study, and the end of the year will see this accomplished.

Better tone quality, better expression, greater ability to read at sight and sing confidently and accurately, have been the ideals for the year.

Twice a week the pupils of all grades are required to sing an exercise at sight and alone, thus enabling both teacher and supervisor to become acquainted with the individual needs and give the help required.

Many astonishing cases have come up in the two years, of monotones, (or those with deficient ear) developing into fairly accurate singers.

There is still about ten per-cent of monotones among all the children of the town. This number should, and will decrease, until it becomes as small as one per-cent.

That the grammar grades were reading three-part songs when music had been taught in the schools but one year and a half, augurs well for the future.

Hearty thanks are due the teachers, whose persistent, faithful efforts have brought about such encouraging results, and to the school officials for their interest and helpfulness in the work.

Respectfully,

LUCY A. GACHELL.

REPORT OF THE DRAWING TEACHER

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS :

The outline of study for the year is as follows :

Sept.—Oct. Study of fall growths.

Nov.—Dec. Construction problems.

Jan.—Feb. Book binding and applied design.

Mar.—Apr. Object drawing.

May—June Study of spring growths.

Simple problems in the construction work have been necessary in order that a good foundation may be laid.

A boy who has never studied arithmetic until he is twelve years old must begin at the same place as a first grade child. A boy who has never done any raffia work must necessarily learn first its easiest forms and uses. A girl who is able to make a beautiful basket, perfect in form and pleasing in design, must some way and somewhere have learned the gradual steps in the process.

The training given the mind, eye and hand through the study of drawing is of the greatest value, whatever the occupation chosen in life. The ability to plan, measure and construct, to originate models and designs, the forming of habits of neatness and accuracy, are some of the very practical results of the training in hand work.

The instruction in book-binding will progress from easy problems to the rebinding of a book with a substantial cover.

The methods of stenciling, and wood block printing, will be taught and these arts will be found most useful in the decorating and beautifying of the home.

When the year's work is completed, a foundation will have been laid, which, followed by further study, may become a very lucrative profession or employment.

The skilled worker is always in demand. A skilled craftsman in the arts of basketry, designing, illustrating or bookbinding can always command a good salary.

I desire to express here my appreciation of the splendid co-operation of the teachers and school officials.

Respectfully,

LUCY A. GATCHELL.

Public Library Report

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association take pleasure in reporting that during the year an average of 175 books have been taken each week. It is gratifying to note the increased interest and patronage as last year the average was 150 books per week. Do the parents fully appreciated what it means to their children that the schools have access through the Library to much of the World's best literature? All residents of the town have the opportunity not only to see the leading magazines but the privilege of taking them to their homes for one week after they have been for a month on the library table. The following magazines are taken by the Association: Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Scribner's, McClure's, St. Nicholas, Cosmopolitan, The World's Work, Book News, Success, Country Life, the Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, and The Technical World, which is one of the best technical publications. The Scientific American and Dumb Animals are contributed by friends.

Through the generosity of the town in voting an appropriation and the income of the dog fund to the association, the directors have been able to purchase a large and varied selection from the best of the recent fiction, many books of travel and adventure, biographies of literary men and statesmen, also scientific works, among these being Harper's Electricity Book for boys, Harper's Machinery Book and Harper's Outdoor Book for boys. A valuable reference book recently purchased is the Handbook of the Trees of the Northern States and Canada, illustrated by photographs of the trees, the fresh leaves, fruits, leafless branchlets and typical bark, by Romeyn B. Hough. Many standard works cannot be secured, owing to the limited space available for the use of the library. From the Hooker fund under the care of Miss Sarah F. Underwood, an expensive and valuable illustrated edition of Stoddard's Lectures has been purchased, especially for use in the schools.

We will repeat what we have said in former reports: If more of our townspeople would become members of the Association we are sure they would find it a mutual benefit to both themselves and the library.

"Dreams, books, are each a world: and books, we know,
Are a substantial world, both pure, and good:
Round them, with tendrils strong as flesh and blood,
Our pastime and our happiness will grow."

Hoping for the continuance of your favor and appropriation,

Respectfully submitted,

LORAIN ANDREWS SMITH,

President of the Association.

Report of School Committee

At the annual town meeting held March 15, 1909, P. R. Stratton was chosen a member of the school committee for three years. The committee met at the home of Mrs. Barlow and organized, electing P. R. Stratton as chairman. Grace Hale Stevens was elected secretary and treasurer. General charge of all school buildings was given to Mrs. Barlow. At the spring meeting of the Belchertown and Enfield school committee, held at the home of Mrs. Barlow for the purpose of choosing a superintendent of schools, Alvin R. Lewis was unanimously re-elected for another year and has done efficient service.

Mrs. Lucy A. Gatchell was chosen supervisor of music and drawing. At a joint meeting of the selectmen and two members of the school board held in the selectmen's room, Saturday, evening, Oct. 30, 1909, to fill the vacancy in school board caused by P. R. Stratton's leaving town, George O. Crosby was chosen a third member of the school board. Your committee feel that good work has been done in all the schools, and would repeat the invitation to parents to visit the schools and encourage the teachers and pupils by your presence.

School Superintendent's Report

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I have the honor of presenting for your consideration my second annual report, which is the sixth annual report of the Superintendent of Schools.

The per cent of attendance for the year ending in June, 1909, is 94, and there have been recorded one hundred and fifty-eight cases of tardiness. There was considerable sickness during the winter term, which caused the per cent of attendance to be a little lower than last year. The number of cases of tardiness is twenty-five less than last year, yet the number is too large. Irregular attendance not only hinders the progress of those pupils who are absent or tardy, but interferes with the work of the whole school. Pupils between the ages of seven and fourteen should be in school every day, unless prevented by sickness. For the benefit of the children, the law relating to school attendance should be strictly enforced.

There have been only two changes in our corps of teachers during the year. At the close of the spring term, Miss Olive Stratton resigned her position in the Kimball school to accept a position in Whitinsville; and Miss Emma Parker resigned as teacher in the Potter school to accept a similar position in Ware. Mrs. Eleanor K. Richardson was elected teacher in the Kimball school and Mrs. Alice Parsons, a normal graduate and a teacher of successful experience, was elected to the Potter school. Our schools are in charge of an efficient corps of teachers, who are greatly interested in their work, and are endeavoring to raise the high standing of our schools.

Departmental teaching has been adopted in the grammar grades, this year, with good success. With fewer subjects to teach, the teachers are able to make a more thorough preparation for their daily work, and the interest of the pupils has increased. Very few schools in small towns are so well arranged for departmental work as the schools in the grammar grades.

There are nineteen pupils in the Athol high school. All these pupils are doing satisfactory work. The report of their teachers shows that the pupils appreciate what the town and the state are doing to provide them with a high school education without cost to their parents for tuition and transportation, and reflects credit on those teachers who prepared them for the high school.

In June there was an exhibition in the town hall of the work done during the year, including music and drawing, when the citizens had an opportunity to observe something of the methods and result of our schools. It is our plan to have during the last of this year, a parents' day in each of the rooms, where the pupils may be seen at their work.

Early in the spring, the Massachusetts Agricultural College furnished the boys with potatoes to plant and offered prizes for the best yields. Although few of the pupils competed for prizes, they demonstrated that they could raise good potatoes. The college has planned to continue this work on a larger scale and the pupils are greatly interested.

It is evident that industrial training will soon be recognized as an important factor in education. Yet, a pupil who has been trained to express his thoughts clearly, in good English, to write properly social and business letters, to solve accurately and rapidly problems one meets in daily life, and to recognize and respect the rights of others, has a very good foundation for his life work.

Improvement in music and drawing, under the efficient supervision of Mrs. Gatchell, is apparent, to whose report I call your attention.

In closing I wish to thank you for your support and co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

March 1, 1910.

Report of Music and Drawing

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

ENFIELD, MASS.,

The progress of the schools in music through the past year has been very encouraging. In 8th and 9th grades we have four part chorus singing, the boys learning to read bass and tenor, and each grade is able to do more advanced work. Special mention should be made of good progress in the two districts.

The same report may be made of the drawing. To train the children to see form and color more accurately has been the aim for the year, and the results are gratifying.

Great credit is due the teachers for their persevering efforts, and it is only their conscientious, daily drill that brings results.

I am glad to have this opportunity to thank them and also the Committee and Superintendent for their enthusiastic co-operation with me in the work.

Public Library Report

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association report that nearly seven thousand books have been taken from the library during the year. They are glad to note an increased interest in the library, shown by the number of young people who apply regularly for books. Many of them also pass a pleasant evening around the reading-table, where they find the current magazines. The Association subscribes for Harpers Monthly, Harpers Bazar, Century, Scribners, Atlantic Monthly. The World's Work, The Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, McClure, St. Nicholas, Cosmopolitan, Book News, Country Life, Technical World, The Scientific American, Dumb Animals, and Literary Digest are contributed by friends. This helpful kindness is much appreciated by Directors and patrons. After remaining on the library table one month, these magazines may, if desired, be taken to the homes for one week.

The generous appropriation made by the town, with the income of the dog fund, and the Hooker fund, have enabled us to purchase during the year many interesting and valuable books, and a further order has recently been sent to the publishers.

The Association has been fortunate this year in receiving gifts of books, the State sending eighteen volumes; Mrs. Weyman of Fitchburg, a native of Enfield, and friend of the library annually sends a few volumes. Mrs. Alice Ward Bailey, herself a writer of some interesting novels, presented many valuable and useful volumes "The Library of her Mother," who was a native of Enfield. Also received from Mrs. Arthur J. N. Ward, Bulletin compiled by The Smithsonian Institute on "Our North American Birds." To these friends we express our gratitude.

"God be thanked for books. They are the voices of the distant and the dead, and make us heirs of the spiritual life of past ages. Books are the true levellers. They give to all who will faithfully use them, the society, the spiritual presence of the best and greatest of our race."

Again we invite the townspeople to become members of the Library Association.

We appreciate the repairs made on the room containing the library and solicit the continued interest and appropriation of the citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President Enfield Library Association.

Report of School Committee

The School Committee would respectfully submit the following report:

At the annual town meeting held March 21, 1910, Grace Hale Stevens was re-elected a member of the school committee for three years and William R. Lisk a member for two years, to fill out the unexpired term of P. R. Stratton. The committee met at the home of Mrs. Barlow and organized, electing M. Rozilla Barlow as chairman, Grace Hale Stevens as secretary and treasurer and William Lisk as fuel committee.

At a joint meeting of the Belchertown and Enfield school committee held in Belchertown in April, Alvin R. Lewis was unanimously re-elected superintendent of schools for another year. Mrs. L. A. Gatchell was chosen supervisor of music and drawing. Your committee appreciates the support given them and trust you will visit the schools oftener and become better acquainted with the work done.

School Superintendent's Report

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I have the honor of submitting for your consideration my third annual report which is the seventh annual report of the superintendent of schools.

Although the work of the schools was interrupted during the winter term on account of measles, the per cent of attendance is a little higher than last year, 95 per cent. Apparently there have been a large number of cases of unnecessary tardiness by a few pupils who do not live far from school. There were during the year one hundred eighty-five tardy marks. In one school there were sixty-two, in another sixty-one. One pupil was tardy fourteen times and a few others nearly as many. The school officials and teachers are united in an effort to help the pupils to form the habit of punctuality, a habit that should be formed by every boy and girl who desires to succeed in life.

At the close of the spring term, Miss Lawrence, who had been a very successful teacher of the grammar school for two years, resigned to accept a similar position in Whitman at a much larger salary than she was receiving here. At the same time Mrs. Parsons resigned as teacher of the Potter school. Just before the schools opened in September, Mrs. Richardson, teacher of the Kimball school, was induced by the offer of a larger salary to accept a position elsewhere, and Miss Rachael Kennedy, teacher at Smith, asked for one year's leave of absence.

Miss Ethel Reed from the Worcester Normal school, was elected teacher of the grammar school; Miss Corrinne Gifford from the Bridgewater Normal school, was placed in the Potter school, but at the close of the fall term was succeeded by Miss Alice M. Whitney, a teacher of successful experience; Miss Mary Lisk was placed in charge of the Kimball school a few weeks until a desirable teacher could be secured. Miss Fannie Thayer from the Westfield Normal school was elected to the position. Miss Kennedy was induced to remain as principal of the school at Smith and Miss Mary Lisk was elected as her assistant.

During the past few years teachers' salaries have increased and good teachers are in demand. To have good teachers we must pay sufficiently large salaries to retain them. Is it wise for Enfield to furnish a training school for neighboring towns to draw from for teachers?

Our schools are now taught by efficient teachers who are interested in their work and are striving to elevate our schools to a higher standard.

The music and drawing have been under the supervision of Mrs. Lucy Gatchell, who has had charge of the work for about four years. This has given her time to work out her plans. The results have been good. The pupils understand the principles of music and can read and sing well. The work in drawing has improved. Although all the pupils are not artists, they understand the principles of drawing and are able to do creditable work. Drawing is made practical and considerable industrial work has been accomplished that will be of value to the pupils in life. Book-binding, designing, and fancy work have been taught; yet much more ought to be done for our boys and girls in industrial training. Every girl should be taught to cook and sew, and every boy should be taught to use tools with at least some degree of skill. If they are not taught these practical accomplishments at home, they should be taught them in connection with their school work. This should and can be done without detracting from the regular school work. Reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, ability to express thoughts clearly in good English, and character building are fundamentals. Industrial training is not a "fad" nor a "luxury," but is essential in giving the boys and girls a practical education. If two additional weeks could be given the grammar school course, and sewing be taught to the girls, and arrangements be made so that the boys could spend two weeks in some manufacturing establishment under skilled supervision, as a part of their school course; the cost would be small and the result would be of great value to our pupils.

In my visits to the Athol high school, I have found all our pupils doing satisfactory work.

Much has been done by Miss Whitney and her pupils in making the room at the Potter school attractive. A book-case, pictures, curtains, a table, etc., have been furnished. The result is pleasing. Environment is a strong influence in the formation of character.

Very few parents have visited the schools during the year. Most of these visits have been made when special exercises have been arranged and not for observing the regular work. It would be gratifying to the school officials and teachers if the parents would frequently visit the schools. They could then speak intelligently of the schools, and the teachers and pupils would feel that the parents are interested in our schools.

In closing I wish to thank the committee for their hearty support, the teachers for their co-operation and the citizens for their courtesy and good will.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

March 1, 1911.

Report of Music and Drawing

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:—

The work in music has been carried on along the same lines as in previous years.

Teachers and children work with increased enthusiasm as each year shows greater advancement and the pleasure from the singing is felt more and more.

The grammar school pupils are reading at sight somewhat difficult songs and learning the joy of four-part harmony. As these girls and boys go out from the school, year by year, the musical life of the town should be much enriched.

Certainly the children themselves will never lose the love for music nor the inspiring influence on their lives gained from the four years of study.

In drawing, the advance step has been an endeavor to connect more closely this study, with all other school studies.

It is especially easy to combine language and drawing and the teachers are encouraged to do this in every possible way.

With a splendid corps of regular teachers and enthusiastic pupils the result of the year's work gives cause for renewed courage and cheer in the future.

I wish once more to express my heartiest gratitude to the teachers, superintendent and committee for their earnest efforts and loyal support.

Respectfully,

LUCY A. GATCHELL.

Public Library Report.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association take pleasure in reporting that during the year eight thousand and thirty-two books were taken from the library. On each of six Saturdays more than two hundred were given out, in no week was the number less than one hundred.

The vote of the Town, appropriating one hundred dollars and the income of the dog fund to the association enabled the directors to expend three hundred dollars for new books, which have been carefully selected from the best writers of modern fiction, science, history and travel. Among them have been many books especially instructive and entertaining for young people.

All residents of the town have the opportunity, not only to see the leading magazines, but the privilege of taking them to their homes for one week, after they have been a month on the library table. The following magazines are subscribed for by the association: Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Atlantic Monthly, Scribner's, The World's Work, Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, McClure, St. Nicholas, Cosmopolitan, Book News, American Magazine, Technical World, Ladies' Home Journal, Scientific American, Country Life. Dumb Animals is also contributed.

A copy of Webster's Dictionary, published in 1829, and a Concordance of the Bible, formerly belonging to Rev. Joshua Crosby, the first pastor of the Enfield Congregational church, have been recently presented to the library. From the state we have received a valuable Magazine Index and several books. Other friends have also remembered the library by gifts of books.

There are now about four thousand five hundred books in the library and a card catalogue has been installed during the year.

Everyone who sees the crowded condition of the library room and shelves, must be convinced that a building is positively essential to the usefulness, even to the existence of the library.

We will repeat, if more of our townspeople would become members of the Association, we are sure they would find it a mutual benefit to themselves and the library.

"The love of knowledge comes with reading and grows upon it. It is a man's duty to have books. A library is not a luxury, but one of the necessities of life."—Henry Ward Beecher.

Hoping for the continuance of your favor and appropriation,

Respectfully submitted,

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President of the Association.

Report of School Committee.

At the annual town meeting held March 20, 1911, M. Rozilla Barlow was re-elected a member of the school committee for three years. The committee met March 22, in the office of the Swift River Co., for organization and elected M. Rozilla Barlow as chairman and Grace Hale Stevens as secretary and treasurer.

General charge of supplies of wood and coal was given to William Lisk. At the Spring meeting of the Belchertown and Enfield school committee held at the home of Mrs. Barlow Thursday, April 13th, 1911, Alvin R. Lewis was unanimously re-elected superintendent of schools for another year. Mrs. L. A. Gatchell was chosen supervisor of music and drawing.

Thanking you for the support given them, your committee extends a cordial invitation to parents and friends to visit the schools.

School Superintendent's Report.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I have the honor of presenting for your consideration my fourth annual report, which is the eighth in the series.

The attendance for the year has not been as good as it should have been. The per cent of attendance is 94. Many children have been kept from school because of sickness; but there are a few parents who are still careless about the attendance of their children in school and allow them to stay out of school without satisfactory reasons. All children between the ages of seven and fourteen are required by law to be in school when physically and mentally able. There have been one hundred and twenty cases of tardiness during the year. This is by far too large a number. If the parents realized the injury the habit of being late will be to the child in life, I believe they would be more careful to have their children in school on time.

Fortunately there have been only two changes in our corps of teachers. At the close of the spring term Miss Ethel Read resigned as principal of the grammar school, matrimony being more attractive than teaching school. Miss Lena Ripley, a teacher of experience and a graduate of the Westfield normal school, was elected to fill the vacancy. Miss Ripley's work proves that no mistake was made in the selection. At the close of the fall term, Miss Mary Lisk resigned her position in the Potter school in order to pursue a business course. Mrs. Alice Parson a graduate of the Westfield normal school and a former teacher of the Potter school, was elected to fill the vacancy. During the last few weeks of the spring term Miss Kennedy was obliged to be absent from the school at Smith's on account of sickness and Miss Rose Foley substituted for the remainder of the term.

In most of our schools we are able to pay a sufficient salary to retain teachers, and can afford to pay even higher wages than to lose a good teacher. Good service is worth as much in Enfield as in any other town.

The Ward system of reading has been used in our schools for a number of years with good results. The Aldine system which has been used in many towns with marked success, was tried in the Smith's school. The improvement, especially in expression, has been so evident, that I recommend that the system be used in all the schools. Reading is the most important subject taught and every means possible should be used that will increase the pupil's ability to read well.

Flags have been furnished for all the schools and the teachers have been instructed to display them from the staffs on every pleasant day and to drape them in the school rooms on other days, in accordance with the law.

In closing, I wish to express my appreciation of the continued support and co-operation of the committee and the good will of the citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

March 1, 1912.

Report of Music and Drawing.

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:—

As a result of hard, conscientious work on the part of both teachers and pupils, the fifth year of our work together in music, finds us nearing the goal and gaining the end for which we have been working, namely, being able to do the work in each grade outlined by the Weaver method.

The Song Book used for the past year in the Grammar School is one prepared for High School work and the fact that our pupils can master the songs, shows what good results may be obtained under the Weaver method.

This is the fourth year of work in drawing.

The results are perhaps not so easily gauged as in music, but comparison with past years, shows greater ability to plan, construct and design in the problems as they are presented.

Not to make artists, but to cultivate habits of accuracy and neatness, to create power to do and open eyes to see beauty, these are the aims of drawing.

It is always a pleasure to have this opportunity to publicly thank the teachers for their earnest efforts and the Committee and Superintendent for their loyal support.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCY A. GATCHELL.

Public Library Report.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association take pleasure in reporting that the interest in the library has been maintained; eight thousand, eight hundred books having been taken out during the year.

The town making its usual generous appropriation with the income of the dog fund, we have been able to add to our already valuable library, many volumes selected from the best of recent fiction, travel and adventure, biography, and science. Special attention has been given to the choice of books interesting to young people and useful in the schools.

It is gratifying to know that the reading table has been well patronized and that the residents of the town have the past year availed themselves more than ever before of the privilege of taking magazines to their homes for one week after they have been for a month on the library table. The Association subscribes for Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Atlantic Monthly, Scribner's, The World's Work, Review of Reviews, Good House-keeping, McClure, Book News, St. Nicholas, Cosmopolitan, American Magazine, Technical World, Ladies' Home Journal, Scientific American, Country Life, Popular, Mechanics; Our Dumb Animals is also contributed.

It is our sincere desire that more of our townspeople should become members of the Association. We are sure the personal interest thus manifested would result in mutual benefit to themselves and to the library, and might bring us the building which is so much needed.

Books are keys to wisdom's treasure;

Books are gates to lands of pleasure;

Books are paths that upward lead;

Books are friends. Come, let us read.

Emilie Poulsson.—

Hoping for the continuation of your favor and appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President of the Association.

Report of School Committee.

At the annual town meeting held March 18, 1912, Willard B. Segur, M. D., was elected a member of the school committee for three years. The committee met for organization March 19, in the home of Mrs. Barlow and elected M. Rozilla Barlow, chairman, and Grace Hale Stevens, secretary and treasurer.

General charge of supplies of wood and coal was given to Dr. Segur.

The joint meeting of the Belchertown and Enfield school committees was held in Belchertown April 18, 1912, and Alvan R. Lewis was re-elected superintendent of schools for a term of three years in accord with a new law changing the time from one to three years. Mrs. L. A. Gatchell was chosen supervisor of music and drawing.

Your committee appreciate the support given them and trust that you will become better acquainted with the work done by frequent visits to the schools.

School Superintendent's Report.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE:

I have the honor of submitting for your consideration my fifth annual report, which is the ninth annual report of the superintendent of schools.

The attendance for the year has been fair, but the number of cases of tardiness in a few of our schools is disgraceful. This large number was caused by a comparative few pupils and nearly every case was absolutely unnecessary. Every child between the ages of seven and fourteen, should be in school every day unless he is unable to attend because of sickness. The law relating to school attendance and the penalty for non-attendance is very plain. The attention of the parents is respectfully called to the following extract from the School Laws of the State:

REVISED LAWS, CHAPTER 44.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

Attendance Compulsory Between Seven and Fourteen Years of Age, and Under Sixteen in Certain Cases.

SECTION 1. (As amended by chapter 320, Acts of 1905, and chapter 383, Acts of 1906.) Every child between seven and fourteen years of age, and every child under sixteen years of age who cannot read at sight and write legibly simple sentences in the English language, shall attend some public day school in the city or town in which he resides during the entire time the public day schools are in session, subject to such exceptions as to children, places of attendance and schools as are provided for in section three of chapter forty-two and sections three, five and six of this chapter. The superintendent of schools or, if there is no superintendent of schools, the school committee, or teachers acting under authority of said superintendent or committee, may excuse cases of necessary absence. The attendance of a child upon a public day school shall not be required if he has attended for a like period of time a private day school approved by the school committee of such city or town in accordance with the provisions of the following section, or if he has been otherwise instructed for a like period of time in the branches of learning required by law to be taught in the public schools, or if he has already acquired such branches of learning, or if his physical or mental condition is such as to render such attendance inexpedient or impracticable. Every person having under his control a child as described in this section shall cause him to attend school as herein required; and if he fails for five day sessions or ten half-day sessions within any period of six months while under such control to cause such child, whose physical or mental condition is not such as to render his attendance at school harmful or impracticable, so to attend school, he shall, upon complaint by a truant officer and conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars: provided, however, that no physical or mental condition which is capable of correction, or which renders the child a fit subject for special instruction at public charge in institutions other than the public day schools, shall avail as a defence under the provisions of this section unless it shall be made to appear that the defendant has employed all reasonable measures for the correction of the condition, or the suitable instruction of the child. Whoever induces or attempts to induce a child to absent himself unlawfully from school, or employs or harbors a child who, while school is in session, is absent unlawfully from school shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

At the close of the spring term, Miss Lena Ripley resigned as principal of the grammar school to accept a position in the schools of Northampton, and Miss Fannie Garvin, who had been a successful teacher in our schools for ten years, resigned as teacher of the intermediate school. Miss Dorothy B. Durkee, a graduate of the Worcester Normal school, was elected teacher of the grammar school, and Miss Emily Bemis, a teacher of experience, was elected teacher of the intermediate school.

Every year the cities and larger towns draw from our corps of teachers. It may be convenient and beneficial to the cities and larger towns, but it does not benefit the schools in Enfield, for our children must necessarily lose by a frequent change in teachers.

There were at the beginning of the year nineteen pupils from Enfield in the Athol high school, one in the Springfield high and three in the Belchertown high.

It is not convenient for our pupils to attend a high school but they should be encouraged to do so. A young man or woman should have at least a high school education and should be prepared for some definite work. Parents as well as teachers should endeavor to create in the children a desire to become useful citizens, and an ambition to make the most of themselves.

Our schools are doing practically nothing along the industrial side of education. If we are to give our children the training that many towns are giving theirs, the girls should be given instruction in sewing and cooking, and the boys should be instructed in some kind of industrial work by competent teachers. This can be done without interfering with the regular work of the schools; in fact, it will stimulate the pupils to better work.

The Aldine system of reading has been introduced into all the primary grades with good results. Greater interest has been aroused and a more natural expression of thought has been evident.

I exercises in phonics has been continued. Daily call your attention to the report of the teacher of music for her plan of work.

In closing I wish to express my appreciation of the support of the committee, the co-operation of the teachers, and the loyalty of the citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

Report of Music and Drawing.

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

For the six years that music has been taught in the schools, it has seemed wise to alternate the years of giving public entertainments with the quiet drill of the school room. Each has its own value. Without the thorough drill on the sight reading the public work would be a sorry failure. But singing before an audience gives a strong incentive for thorough drill in clear articulation, good phrasing and artistic interpretation, sometimes lacking in the monotony of sight reading exercises.

The program planned for the year includes the entertainment already given by the primary and intermediate children, the operetta, "Boy Blue," given by the grammar pupils, the May festival, in celebration of the coming of Spring, with songs and folk dances, and the graduation music.

The drawing has been carried on as usual. Three new features are to be tried. Clay modelling for primary grades, basketry and cross stitching (taking the place of stenciling) for grammar rooms.

To the teachers are due the heartiest thanks for their co-operation in all these plans and to Superintendent and committee for their loyal support.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCY A. GATCHELL,

Supervisor of Music and Drawing.

Public Library Report.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association are glad to report continued interest in and desire for good reading, the records showing that 140 books per week have been taken from the library during the past year.

The Association subscribes for the following magazines: Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Scribner's, Atlantic Monthly, World's Work, Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, McClure's, St. Nicholas, Youth's Companion, American Magazine, Cosmopolitan, Technical World, Ladies Home Journal, Scientific American, Country Life, Popular Mechanics. These magazines, after they have been a month on the library table, may be taken to the homes for one week. The Directors note with pleasure the interest taken in the magazines and the increased use of the reading table. More than two hundred books have been purchased, selected with care from the best authors, many of them designed to interest young people and help in forming a taste for good literature.

The late Mrs. E. T. Wright left a legacy of five hundred dollars to the Enfield Library Association, the income to be used for the purchase of books. This legacy the Directors accepted with hearty thanks and voted that it should be known as the Elizabeth Trask Wright fund. Mrs. Wright appreciated the library and found much enjoyment in the reading which it afforded her.

The Library Association desires to express its deep sense of grief and loss in the death of its Secretary and Treasurer, Charles D. Haskell, who for sixteen years faithfully and conscientiously worked to promote the best interests of the library.

The lighting of the library room by electricity is a great convenience to the Librarians and adds much to the comfort and enjoyment of those who spend an evening at the reading table.

The Directors feel sure that the Citizens of the town appreciate the value of the library to the community and will continue to grant the usual appropriation and the income of the dog fund for its support.

"A blessed companion is a book—a book that fitly chosen is a life-long friend."—Douglas Jerrold.

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President Enfield Library Association.

Report of School Committee.

Your committee organized in September with Dr. W. B. Segur, chairman, and Mrs. Grace Hale Stevens, secretary and treasurer.

A few changes were necessary at the opening of the school year in our corps of teachers. Miss Thayer was transferred to succeed Miss Bemis, resigned, and Miss Cannon appointed to fill the vacancy in the Kimball school. Owing to the resignation of Mrs. Gatchell, Miss Ballou was selected as instructor in music, drawing and handicraft and by special arrangement we have been able to secure her services four days a week.

Compulsory vaccination has been impartially enforced as required by law. Some repairs have been made in the Potter school and the interior of the school house at Smiths as well as both rooms in the Town Hall have been renovated.

The work and progress in all our schools has been generally satisfactory, even if not wholly perfect. The citizens of the near future are the boys and girls in our schools today, therefore your committee asks that parents and guardians co-operate with us and the teachers in securing the best results possible and this can be greatly advanced by personally visiting the schools, inspecting the work and giving us the benefit of your opinion.

School Superintendent's Report.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I herewith submit for your consideration my sixth annual report, which is the tenth annual report of the superintendent of schools.

ATTENDANCE.

The per cent of attendance for the school year ending June 30, 1913, was 95. The number of cases of tardiness has increased. The parents can do much toward correcting this bad habit which some of the children have formed. I trust that the parents will co-operate with the teachers in their endeavor to train the children in habits of punctuality.

TEACHERS.

Miss Bemis resigned as teacher of the intermediate room at the close of the spring term to accept a position in the schools of Windsor, Conn., influenced by a larger salary. Miss Fannie Thayer was transferred from the Kimball school to the intermediate and Miss Bertha Cannon, a graduate of Smith college, was placed in charge of the Kimball school. The law recently passed which requires the state to pay for the transportation of our high school pupils, certain conditions having been complied with, will I trust, enable the town to pay her teachers a sufficiently large salary to prevent annual vacancies which for the salary now paid it is very difficult to fill with teachers with training or successful experience.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS.

About twenty-five pupils have attended the Athol high school, three Cushing Academy and three the Belchertown high school. The pupils who attend the Athol high school lose two hours of the school session each day and the long ride on the train is not agreeable to many of the pupils. This arrangement has never been entirely satisfactory. The Athol high school has increased in membership so that it will be only a short time before our pupils will not be received.

It seems possible that some arrangement may be made with the town of Belchertown whereby our pupils may attend school there, which will be a benefit to both towns. The amount the state will allow for transportation and the amount Belchertown would receive as tuition from the town of Enfield, which the state will reimburse, would provide satisfactory transportation for our pupils and furnish means wherewith the courses in the Belchertown high school could be extended. This plan is worthy of consideration and seems to be the only reasonable plan whereby our pupils will be able to receive a high school education.

SCHOOLS.

Special attention has been given during the year to reading, language and spelling, and improvement is manifest. Sewing has been taught the girls, and the boys in the higher grades have been given instruction in mechanical drawing under the direction of Miss Ballou who has had charge of the music and drawing during the year.

All the pupils in our schools have complied with the law relating to vaccination. Hereafter no child will be admitted to our schools who does not furnish a certificate of vaccination or a certificate signed by a physician exempting him from vaccination.

The eye and ear test has been given as required by law.
Number of pupils examined.....	183
Number defective in sight.....	6
Number defective in hearing.....	3
Number of parents notified.....	9

Miss Lucy A. Gatchell who has had charge of the music and drawing during six years, resigned at the close of the spring term. Mrs. Gatchell was remarkably successful in her line of work and the pupils rapidly improved under her instruction. Miss Jessica Ballou, a graduate of the Normal Art school and who had been a teacher of music in public schools was elected teacher of music and drawing.

In closing I will call your attention to two important changes in the school laws relating to attendance, and to the law providing for the payment by towns for the transportation of pupils to outside high schools.

1: The standard of requirements of an education, before employment can be given to children between fourteen and sixteen years of age, has been raised from the completion of the work required in the third grade to the completion of the work required in the fourth grade.

2: Children between fourteen and sixteen years of age must now be employed in some profitable employment for at least six hours a day or they must have the written permission of the superintendent of schools to engage in profitable employment at home, otherwise they must attend school with the same regularity as children between seven and fourteen years of age.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE PAYMENT BY TOWNS
FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF PUPILS TO OUTSIDE HIGH SCHOOLS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of chapter forty-two of the Revised Laws, as amended by chapter four hundred and thirty-three of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and two, and by chapter five hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraph:— A town of less than five hundred families or householders, in which a public high school or public school of corresponding grade is not maintained, shall, through its school committee, when necessary, provide for the transportation of any child who resides in said town, and who with the previous approval of the school committee of the town attends the high school of any other town or city, and shall pay for the expense of such transportation a sum not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per week during the time of actual attendance of such child in the high school. If any town fails to provide such transportation, it shall be liable in an action of contract, to the parent or guardian of a child who has been furnished with such transportation for such amounts, not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per week, as the parent or guardian has paid for the same. A town which has expended for the support of its public schools for the preceding year from the proceeds of local taxation an amount not less than four and less than five dollars per thousand dollars of valuation shall receive from the treasury of the commonwealth one half of the amount actually expended for transportation under the provisions of this act; and a town which has expended from the proceeds of local taxation for the support of its public schools for the preceding year an amount equal to at least five dollars per thousand of valuation shall receive from the treasury of the commonwealth the whole transportation under the provisions of this act.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon the first day of July in the year nineteen hundred and thirteen. Approved March 28, 1913.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

Report of Music and Drawing.

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

The work in music which is being done this year follows the same system as in previous years. New material has been provided by adding more books of the New Education Series to those already in use. Thus a different book is used in each room of the center schools. The individual work is being continued and in addition a portion of the book is studied each week.

In drawing about the same course is being used as formerly. One forty-five minute lesson is taught each week in the center schools.

New work has been started in sewing with manual training for boys above the fourth grade. Sewing is taught to all girls from grades two to nine and boys from grades two to four. In the centre school the fifth grade boys asked permission to join the class and are doing as good work as the girls. The course comprises three models worked on canvas in which eight common stitches are learned. The transition from canvas to cloth is not easy for some but all are anxious to do well.

Articles of clothing of practical use will be made as soon as the pupils are able to sew well enough. Much of the work is done out of school hours.

An elementary course in manual training is used in grades four and five at the center, all pupils now taking both this and the sewing. The pupils learn to measure and to construct simple objects from cardboard.

The course in manual training for boys from grades six to nine has been of a miscellaneous character. The use of the drawing kit was taught, a few geometric problems constructed and some of the type solids and fancy boxes made from paper. Later working drawings will be taken up, preparing for construction work with heavier materials.

There are classes in these new subjects in the district school so that all pupils are having the work.

Much credit is due all the teachers for their work in music and their aid in the other subjects. Thanks are also due the committee for so generously providing material.

Respectfully,

JESSICA E. BALLOU,

Supervisor of Music and Manual Arts.

Public Library Report.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association report that the interest of former years has been maintained and the broadening influence of the library shown in an increased number of patrons and a larger number of books distributed, the average being 158 a week.

Sixty interesting and instructive juvenile books have recently been presented to the library by the State Library Bureau. Two hundred dollars have been expended by the Association in the purchase of books carefully selected from the best recent publications.

The magazines find ready appreciation by a large number of readers. The Association subscribes for Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Scribner's, Atlantic Monthly, World's Work, Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, McClure's, St. Nicholas, Youth's Companion, American Magazine, Cosmopolitan, Technical World, Ladies' Home Journal, Scientific American, Country Life, Popular Mechanics.

The Library Association received one thousand dollars from the estate of Mrs. Lucretia Cary Chamberlain. This gift was received with gratitude and will be of great value to the library, the income being used for the purchase of books.

The death during the year, of Miss Sara Frances Underwood, has taken from the Library Association and the Board of Directors a valued member. Always interested in the library, her literary taste and wide knowledge of books enabled her to render valuable assistance in the selection of books. We shall miss her willing service and readiness to help.

We are sure that this report will encourage the Citizens of the town to continue the usual appropriation for the library and to grant the income of the dog fund for its support.

"If we encountered a man of rare intellect, we should ask him what books he read."—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President Enfield Library Association.

School Superintendent's Report.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I herewith submit for your consideration my seventh annual report, which is the eleventh annual report of the superintendent of schools.

ATTENDANCE.

The per cent. of attendance for the school year ending June 3, 1914, was 93. This is two per cent. lower than last year. The number of cases of tardiness was one hundred eighty-two less than last year. This number should be greatly decreased. There is not any excuse for so large a number of cases of tardiness.

TEACHERS.

Miss Dorothy Durkee resigned as principal of the grammar school at the close of the spring term to accept a position in the schools of Worcester. Miss Durkee had taught in our schools two years. She was a successful teacher and her resignation was accepted with regret.

Miss Mary Kennedy who had been a teacher in our primary schools for ten years, resigned at the close of the spring term, to be married. School officials, parents, and pupils were sorry to lose Miss Kennedy as a teacher in our schools and wish her success and happiness in her new position.

At the close of the spring term Miss Bertha Cannon, who taught in the Kimball school resigned to accept a position in the schools of Hartford, Conn.

Mr. H. Franklin Norton, a graduate of the Hyannis normal school, and a teacher of successful experience, was elected principal of the grammar school. Miss Fannie Frost, a graduate of the Randolph normal school and a teacher of six years experience, was elected teacher of the Center primary school.

Miss Florence Johnson, a graduate of a teachers' college and an experienced teacher was elected to fill the vacancy in the Kimball school.

SCHOOLS.

At the beginning of the school year in September, Miss Florence Babb, who by training and experience was well qualified for the position, was elected teacher of music and Miss Ballou continued the work in drawing and manual training. Excellent progress is being made in music and advanced work has been accomplished in manual training. A room has been prepared and furnished in the basement of the grammar building where the girls are taught sewing and cooking and the boys are taught mechanical drawing and wood work. It is so short a time since this work has been introduced that it is impossible to speak intelligently of the results, but training along these lines is certainly an important part of a child's education, and, if properly taught, the result will be for good.

Although the manual training has been added to the pupil's work, the regular work of the school has not suffered; but better work is evident.

The Aldine method in reading has been used more than a year and the result has been satisfactory. The pupils read with better expression, increased interest and greater intelligence. With the change in text books, the work in arithmetic has improved. Greater rapidity and accuracy in the essentials has been gained. Spelling is systematically taught and it is hoped that it will not be said of the pupils who graduate from our schools, "They cannot spell."

As a result of the additional funds the town has received from the state, it has been possible to substantially raise the salary of all the teachers; place new seats in some of the rooms, enrich the course of study and furnish a larger amount of material for work. This has been done without extra expense to the town.

I will call your attention to these facts: Unless the town expends from the local taxation a sum equal to at least five dollars per thousand of valuation for the support of schools, she will not be reimbursed by the state for the amount expended for the transportation of high school pupils.. No pupil will be received into our schools who has not been vaccinated or has not received a certificate exempting him from vaccination. All children between fourteen and sixteen years of age who are not regularly employed must regularly attend school.

In closing I will call your attention to the reports of the teacher of music and the teacher of drawing and manual training.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

Report of the Supervisor of Music.

The work in public school music this year has been studied with regard to these three topics:

- 1 Sight Reading.
- 2 Written Work.
- 3 Songs.

The sight reading has been conducted by the use of the individual slips usually twice a week, the record sheet being kept once a week. It is very gratifying to watch the progress, how the average of correct pupils has increased and the time limit lessened. This individual slip singing develops independence, concentration, quick thinking, keen perception, habits of accuracy if properly conducted and self control. In addition to the slips, exercises have been studied from the books.

In written work, I have tried to grade the schools in music, as they are in other subjects, and graded theoretical examinations, involving all the fundamental principles and essential rudiments of musical notation have been given frequently. Music writing books published by American Book company have been introduced. This book includes copying and writing scales and exercises and written dictation.

The songs have been selected from the New Educational Music Course and all available supplementary sources according to the ability of the school and with reference to the time of the year. These songs have been taught by rote, note and syllables, the latter proving a very valuable drill. The majority of the songs were memorized. The songs help to develop a musical voice, love of good music, musical interpretation, melodic thought and enunciation.

A Christmas program was given in the Town Hall, one special feature was the singing of the old English carols. These public exhibitions help to inspire confidence and opportunities are given for solo, duet, trio and quartette besides ensemble work.

A music manual was given each teacher in the fall with a definite outline of the work of each grade for the year. Special scale and skip drills have been given to aid those who are deficient in pitch.

I wish to thank the teachers, the superintendent and the committee for their hearty co-operation, and all who have been interested in helping to make public school music a success.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE M. BABB.

Report of the Supervisor of Drawing.

TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

The work in drawing, manual training and sewing has been continued and a little cooking is now being combined with sewing in the grammar grades. A room has been partitioned off in the basement of the grammar school building and many of the classes are held there.

The lower grades are receiving instruction in various forms of handwork such as sewing and paper folding, so that each pupil above the first grade receives two lessons a week from the supervisor.

During the spring term the older boys did some work in whittling and the girls made a number of gingham aprons. An exhibition of all the work was held in the town hall in June.

An equipment is gradually being accumulated which will enable us to do more advanced work in the future than has been done in the past. Of course time is necessary to adjust ourselves to the new conditions and to find the best ways of working under unusual circumstances and with the least possible expenditure.

Respectfully,

JESSICA E. BALLOU.

MEMOS AND EXTRACTS.

INHABITANTS OF ENFIELD

Hampshire, SS.

vs.

SUPERIOR COURT

CAROLINE D. WOODS, personally and as Executrix of the will of Cyrus

F. Woods.

In Equity.

J. C. Hammond who was appointed Special Master in the above case has made his draft report which report being preliminary is subject to change.

The Master finds that Robert Field was the owner of the locus in question prior to 1814 and that sometime before that year he made a parol gift of certain land to the South Parish of Greenwich, now the Town of Enfield.

The land so given is bounded easterly on the Meeting House lot of the Congregational Church in said Enfield, southerly on the main travelled highway, westerly on the road to Amherst and northerly by land formerly marked by a very ancient fence.

That this fence had stood on this line and in front of the homestead of C. F. Woods, J. E. Woods and the Parsonage lot and in a straight line for a longer period than the memory of any witness produced at the hearing.

One witness 85 years of age testified that it was there as long ago as the year 1839, and that all the time it was known as the Northerly bound of the land which Robert Field had given to the Town for a common.

The Master also finds that the persons who preceded Cyrus F. Woods in title did not lay claim to the locus in question.

That the Town of Enfield, its selectmen and the citizens generally have laid claim to the land as the undisputed land of the Town of Enfield ever since a time prior to the year 1814.

It was used for gatherings on public occasions and for a recreation ground for the younger people playing games and this use was not questioned by any predecessor in title to C. F. Woods.

After he acquired title in 1884 he made claim that his title extended to the main highway and included the tract in dispute. He did not have any open, uninterrupted, adverse possession.

He did not exclude the Town of Enfield, or the general public for any substantial period of time.

"The contention of the defendant that Cyrus F. Woods held title by adverse possession is not sustained", says the Master. "I, find that he did not."

The description of the Estate deeded by J. Edward Woods and Solon R. Towne to Cyrus F. Woods, November 21, 1884, is substantially the same as in Robert Field's deed to Marshall S. Jones in 1814 before referred to (made 95 years ago).

The Master further says, "By no construction of said deed can its terms include the place where the monument stands.

I find that said deed does not purport by any construction of its terms, when applied to known lines, to give any title to the defendant in the land on which the Soldiers' Monument stands.

I have before found that although the deed to Caroline F. Woods dated January 30, 1908, and recorded in Book 620, page 433 does in terms cover the parcel of land in dispute it does not vest title in the disputed locus in this defendant. The grantors did not have the title thereto."

The Master finds that the Town did acquire by parole gift a title to said "Common", including the land in dispute at a time before the year 1814, and thereafter for the period of seventy years and more the town continued in open, uninterrupted possession with claim of right disputed by no one.

I find the fee and title to the land is in the plaintiff the Town of Enfield and that the defendant has no right, title or interest therein.

Any fact concerning the location of the cannon and pyramid of cannon balls is admitted to be immaterial. It is not claimed by the defendant that they are on her land.

The attorney for the respondent requested 6 rulings which were not given but the Master found as follows among other rulings.

1. I have found as a fact upon consideration of all the evidence that the town does and the defendant does not hold title to the land on which the soldiers' monument stands, does not permit the Master to report all the evidence.

2. I have found as a fact based upon the evidence and all the evidence that the plaintiff Town of Enfield has established title to that tract of land marked on the plan A. B. C. D., same being the tract claimed by the defendant.

3. I have found as a fact based on all the evidence that the Town was as early as the year 1814 in possession of said entire tract called "the Common" (excluding the church common as now known) by parole gift of one Robert Field and that this possession was exclusive and adverse to any claim of private ownership for at least seventy years thereafter.

4. I do not find that the town's acquired use or title was for passage merely. But I do find as before stated that the fee of said land is in the Town of Enfield.

5. I do not find that the defendant and her husband, Cyrus F. Woods have had the occupation and control of the disputed premises by virtue of the deed to Cyrus F. Woods in 1884. This has before been fully considered. I found that said deed does not by its terms include the tract.

I have found that the plaintiff did not have such occupation and control of the premises as to give title by prescription.

The case will come before the Master probably sometime in January for a filing of the final report when either party may take exceptions to the higher Court either on admission of evidence or on questions of law.

The following is the decision made by Judge Henry A. King in confirming the Master's report.

Hampshire, SS.

SUPERIOR COURT,
Equity.

No. 926

INHABITANTS OF ENFIELD, vs.

CAROLINE D. WOODS, personally, and as Executrix of Cyrus F. Woods, deceased.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION.

This case came on to be heard upon the Report of John C. Hammond, Esq., heretofore appointed Special Master to hear the parties and their evidence, and to report his findings thereon to the Court. And upon consideration thereof and after hearing Counsel for the respective parties, the Court finds the facts to be as set forth and found by the Master in his report, excepting only the Master's finding that plaintiff acquired title to the land and premises in dispute by parole gift from Robert Field.

And said Master's report is confirmed in all things else.

And respondent's objections and exceptions to said report in that regard only are sustained:—and in all other respects and particulars they are over-ruled.

And respondent's objection and exception to the testimony of witness Isaac M. Bestor to the effect that the witness heard his grandmother and other old people now deceased "say that Robert Field gave the Common and the burying ground to the town of Greenwich" (South Parish now Enfield) and the like objection and exception to similar testimony from witness Benjamin E. Harwood are overruled.

It may well be that this evidence of reputation or tradition to establish the particular fact of title by gift was inadmissible under the authorities. But evidence of reputation, tradition and declarations of aged persons since deceased as to matters of public and general interest, as for example to show the existence of a common and its cemeteries is admissible as a well settled exception to the rule excluding hearsay.

The other facts found by the Master and set forth in detail in his report well support his fundamental finding and conclusion that the defendant had at the time of the filing of plaintiff's bill of complaint and now has no right, title or interest in the particular parcel of land whereon plaintiff has erected and seeks to maintain a soldiers' monument free from any molestation thereof or interference therewith upon the part of the defendant.

And the Master's findings of fact, (exclusive of the finding of a parole gift of the premises) warrant if they do not irresistibly compel a finding that the town of Enfield had at the time it erected the Soldiers' Monument upon the so-called "Common" title in fee to the parcel of land whereon said monument was erected and now stands, as well as like title to the parcel particularly described in the Master's report and delineated upon the map or plotting accompanying said report and designated as A. B. C. D.

And the Court so finds the fact to be.

But whether title thereto was acquired by plaintiff by gift or by unrecorded deed, or by open, exclusive, adverse and uninterrupted possession for more than twenty years need not be determined. The facts found by the Master establish practical acquiescence in plaintiff's ownership of the premises in question for nearly seventy years before 1884 by defendant's predecessors in title.

The Master's conclusion is well sustained irrespective of technical error if any in the admission of traditionary evidence of parole gift. The plaintiff is entitled to a decree adjudging it to be the owner of the parcel of land in front of defendant's premises known as the Common and substantially as described in the Master's report, and particularly to the parcel upon which it has erected a soldiers' monument as set forth in the bill of complaint; and defendant should be permanently enjoined from inquiring, molesting or in any way interfering with said monument as prayed for in the bill of complaint.

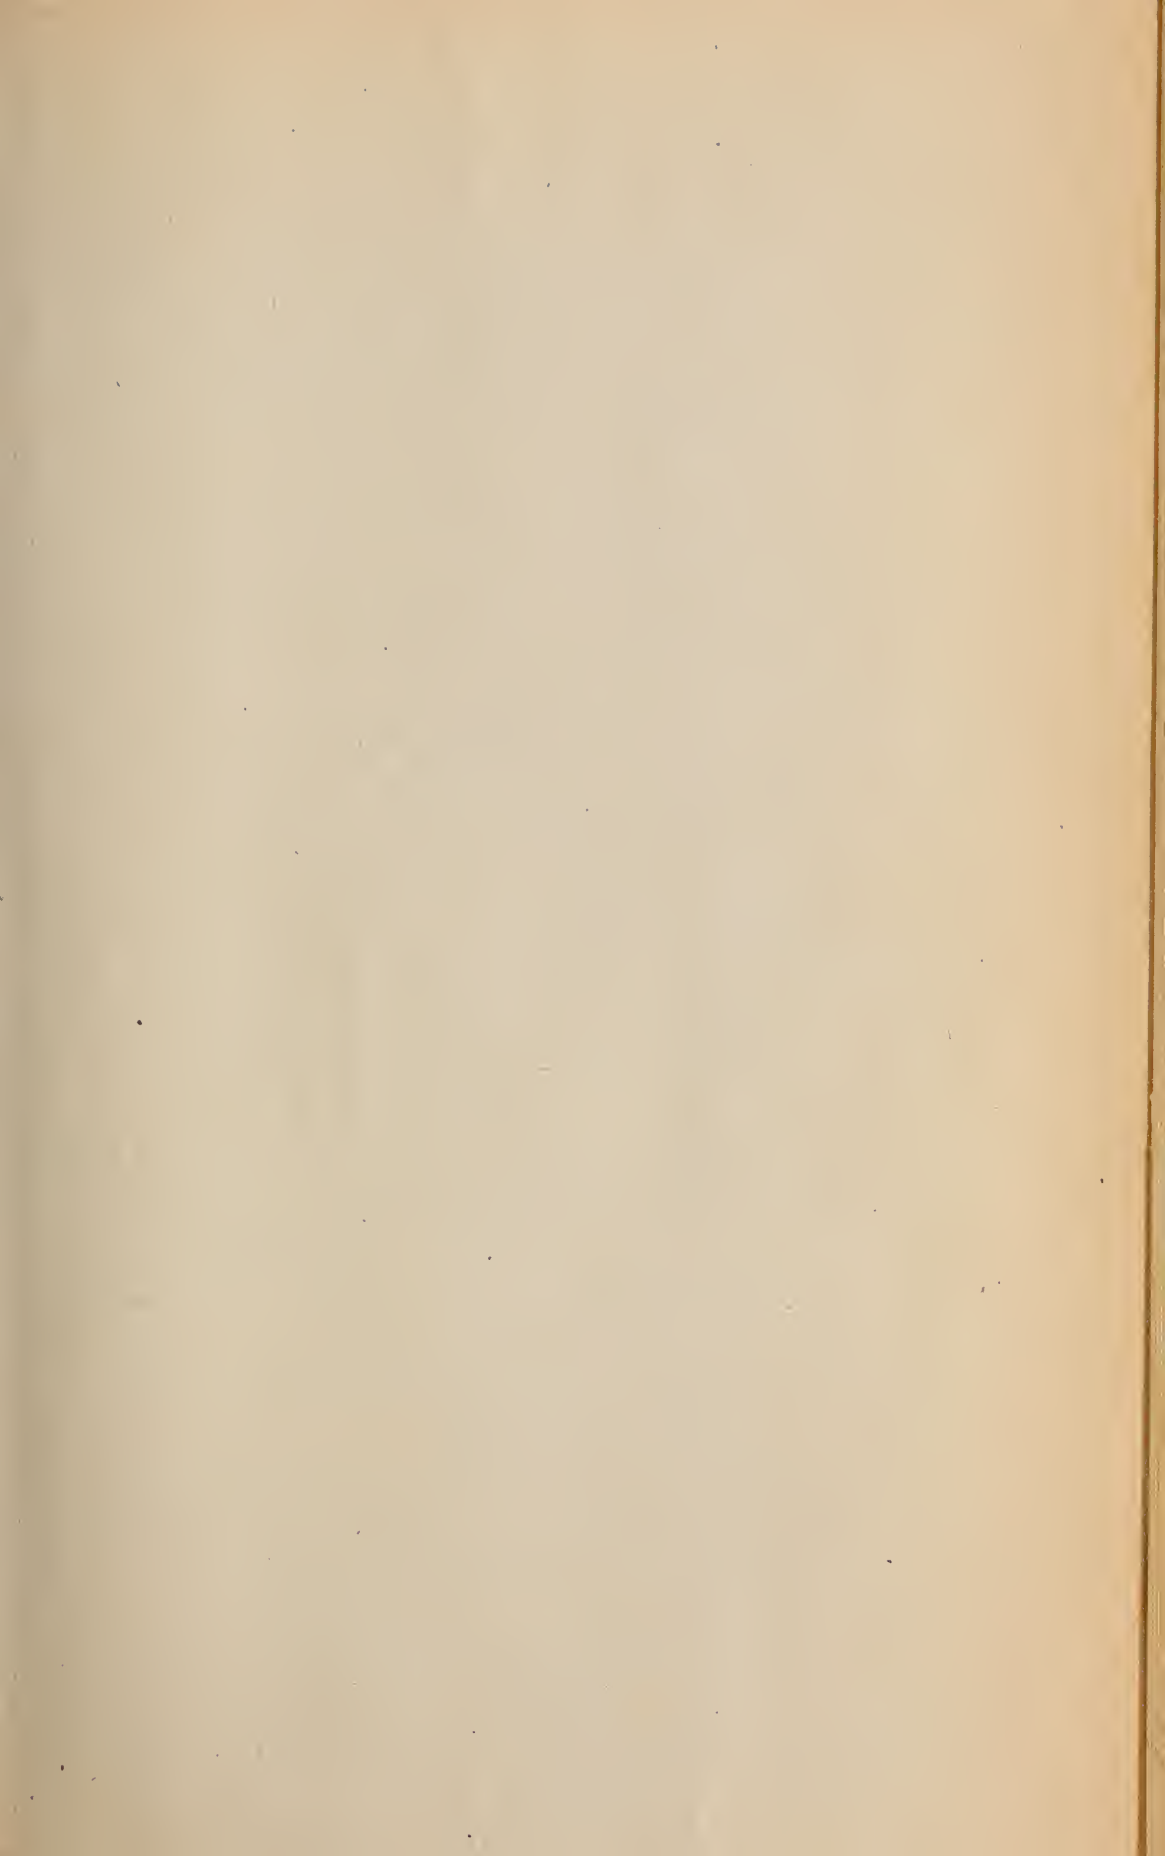

Let a decree be entered accordingly with costs to plaintiff.

HENRY A. KING, Justice of Superior Court.

Public Library Report

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors of the Enfield Library Association are glad to report that the library has been well patronized the past year and has proved a means of interest and enjoyment as well as education to so large a portion of our community.

The reading table is supplied with the best current literature. The following magazines may be found there. Harper's Monthly, Harper's Bazar, Century, Scribner's, Atlantic Monthly, Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, McClures, St. Nicholas, Youths Companion, American Magazine, Cosmopolitan, Technical World, Ladies Home Journal, Motor Age, Country Life, World's Work, Christian Science Journal, Popular Mechanics, Motor, Scientific American.

After remaining on the table one month these may be taken to the homes for a week. Many have taken advantage of this privilege and have appreciated the opportunity this gives them for varied and instructive reading.

We have purchased during the year, within the limit of our means, such books as seemed to us best adapted to the interests of our readers.

We acknowledge with grateful appreciation the gift of twenty-five volumes made to the association the past year. Among these we would especially note two valuable and interesting books, one "Panama" illustrated, the other "King Albert's book."

Our thanks are due to Mrs. Arthur J. N. Ward for the gift of a valuable globe.

We ask that the town continue to show its interest in the library by making the usual annual appropriation for its support and granting the income of the dog fund. "Recorded thought is our heritage from the past, the most lasting legacy we can leave to the future. Books are the most enduring monument of man's achievement."—Frederick M. Crunden.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President Enfield Library Association.

Report of School Committee

Your School Committee wish to report a very satisfactory condition of the schools in the town for the past year, a well marked spirit of harmony existing in all directions.

At the opening of the school year there was but one change in the teaching force, Miss Williams taking the place of Mrs. Parsons in the Potter district and her work is proving highly satisfactory.

With the closing of the school at Smith's we were fortunate in retaining Miss Kennedy for the primary department in the center school.

The expenditures of the school board have been kept down as far as seemed possible without curtailing the efficiency and any seeming difference between last year and the present is due to the change in the beginning of the fiscal year making last year's accounts cover a short year instead of a full year. It is hoped that parents who apply for high school transportation will see that the tickets are used in full by the child and not forfeited after a short time or left not taken as needless expense is incurred for which they might be called upon to pay. Parents are requested to remember that all absences must be accounted for to the teachers by note of explanation from parent to teacher on return of the child to school and that only a limited number of absences are permitted by law other than for illness on the part of the child.

An understanding of "fire drill" has been given and occasional practice advised.

We are thankful in recording the gift of the Hanks playground to the Potter school and hope that before another year closes a similar addition may be made to the Kimball school so that the children may have a proper place for recreation and sport without encroaching on the highway or trespassing on private property.

A continuance of mutual co-operation on the part of parents, teachers and scholars with the committee is urged in our efforts to maintain a superior grade of schools in Enfield.

For the Committee,

DR. W. B. SEGUR, Chairman.

School Superintendent's Report

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I herewith submit for your consideration my eighth annual report, which is the twelfth annual report of the superintendent of schools.

ATTENDANCE.

The percent of attendance for the school year ending June 30, 1915, was 95, which is two percent larger than the year before. The number of cases of tardiness was one hundred sixty-eight, fifty-seven less than last year. One pupil was responsible for twenty-eight tardy marks. Although a number of families have been obliged to move away from town, owing to business depression, yet the average attendance is larger than last year.

TEACHERS.

Enfield is fortunate in being financially able to employ excellent teachers. This is owing to the large amount received annually from the state. But we should bear in mind that if we continue to receive what we are now receiving, we must raise five dollars on each thousand dollars of the town's valuation, and must use for the support of schools the money received from the state.

In the spring Mr. Leland Dudley was engaged to teach the grammar school, Mr. Norton having resigned. At the close of the spring term Mrs. Parsons, teacher in the Potter school, was granted a year's leave of absence, and Miss Abbie Williams was engaged to teach the school for one year.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS.

The pupils in the Athol high school had some trouble at the opening of the school in September in arranging for the required number of studies. Although the pupils may not be able, in all cases, to select the studies they prefer, they are able to take the required number.

The two pupils in the Belchertown high school are doing satisfactory work. There is one pupil in the Smith Agricultural school in Northampton. The tuition in this school is $100 a year. The town will be reimbursed in full by the state.

SCHOOLS.

Miss Ballou, teacher of drawing and practical arts, resigned. During this year, Mr. Dudley has taught mechanical drawing and its application to the boys in the grammar school, and Miss Harwood has taught drawing and sewing to the girls. Good work has been accomplished along these lines.

Because of the small number of pupils in the Smith school, it was arranged to transport the pupils to the primary school in the Center formerly taught by Miss Frost; and Miss Rachael Kennedy, teacher at Smith, was placed in charge of the Center primary.

Miss Babb has continued to do excellent work in music. We are arranging for an exhibition of the work of the schools including music, early in the spring.

I recommend that a special teacher of drawing and practical arts be employed for the year beginning in September.

In closing, I call your attention to the report of the teacher of music.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

January 1, 1916.

Report of Supervisor of Music

The work in public school music has been continued with these three main objects in view: first, to improve the pupil's ability to read at sight; second, to give him a working knowledge of the rudiments of music; third, to teach him to interpret songs intelligently.

Sight-reading and a study of music fundamentals aid the pupil to acquire a sense of form. "There can be no freedom in art until the form is mastered." As fast as the reading ability improves, the standard of art advances. Sight-reading is the foundation of all our work in music, and is carried out by means of the individual slip singing exercises from the books and from the board, and in songs. The use of syllables is a very valuable drill in correlation with sight-reading.

Through interpretation we may learn to distinguish between mediocre and good music, while a sense of beauty of form and tone is developed. By means of interpretation, and a use of good material, an effort is being made to develop a love for the best in music.

Written work includes the theoretical examinations, copying exercises, slips and songs, writing the major scales, and supplementary work as outlined in the music writing book. The mark for the pupil's report card is obtained from the result of the examinations, slip singing and song work, often times those who are deficient in pitch or boys in the adolescent period do the best in theoretical work. The teachers mark the scholars for they are a witness to their daily work and the supervisor comes only once a week.

The tone quality is much better, at first it was a harsh, nasal and rasping tone with a tendency to flat, now it seems subdued and more pleasing to the ear. Quality is more essential than quantity a song rendered in a monotonous tone is not as desirable as the one with expression.

In many ways the supervisor, by her personal contact with the children, can aid and influence them and supplement the teacher's effort. Her chief work, however, is the planning of the most logical course for pupils or teachers to follow, the giving of needed suggestions and criticisms—in general the bringing of help to meet the many and varied needs of different schools.

The booklet entitled, "The One Hundred and One Best Songs," published by the Cable Co., Chicago, has been introduced into the Grammar school, the Potter and Kimball schools. This collection contains hymns, college, patriotic and folk songs, familiar old tunes and secular ones. Songs are selected from different sources to illustrate a particular principle, or in regard to some particular event or time of the year.

Mrs. Walter Bliss gave an organ to the Potter school this fall. The teacher, scholars and supervisor wish to express their sincere thanks for her kindness and thoughtfulness.

Miss Florence Johnson, teacher of the Kimball school, allows the school the use of her organ. The pupils and the supervisor are very grateful and appreciate this privilege.

The hearty cooperation of the teachers, the superintendent and the committee has made my work very pleasant, and is in a large measure responsible for the progress made during the past year, for which I am very grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE M. BABB,

Supervisor of Music.

Public Library Report

TO THE CITIZENS OF ENFIELD:

The Directors are glad to report an increasing patronage of the library each year, which tells them there is a growing desire for good reading by the people of the town.

The sudden death of Miss Ada L. Harwood came as a shock to her many friends. She had been librarian of the Enfield Public Library for more than twenty years. Efficient and accurate in her work, with a good knowledge of the books under her care, she was faithful to her trust. Always obliging and pleasant she was well adapted to the position which she filled. Mrs. C. Elmer Harwood, who for a number of years has been assistant, was elected librarian.

As in former years the best of the current magazines have been placed on the reading table, an average of fifteen each week being taken to the homes from those which had previously been on the table one month.

An instructive book "The Art of Looking at Pictures," has been presented to the Library by the author, Carl P. Thurston, son of the late Rev. Philander Thurston of this town. "Messages of Our Presidents" in nine volumes, bound in half Morocco have been given us by Mrs. William Pope of Providence, R. I. Thirty books on varied subjects have been sent by the State Library Commission. For all these additions to our library we are very grateful.

We heartily appreciate the gift to the Enfield Library Association by Mrs. Susan J. Crane of a fine portrait of her brother, Dr. Francis H. Underwood, the noted author. He was assistant editor of the Atlantic Monthly in its early years, and closely associated with Holmes, Longfellow, Lowell, Field and other literary men of that time. Later he was appointed consul to Leith, Scotland, which office he held at the time of his death.

Our hearty thanks are due to "The Enfield Boys who are in Springfield" who so kindly presented to the Enfield Library Association the silver cup won by them at the time of the centennial celebration.

The Library room has been made attractive by re-painting and placing of additional book cases. The usual number of carefully selected new books have been purchased during the year. There are now six thousand volumes aside from public documents. We realize every year the need of a library building.

Book love, my friends, is your pass to the greatest, the purest and the most perfect pleasure that God has prepared for his creatures.—Anthony Trollope.

We hope for your continued interest and the usual appropriation.

Respectfully submitted.,

MARION ANDREWS SMITH,

President Enfield Library Association.

Report of School Committee

Your Committee wishes to report a very satisfactory condition existing throughout all the school departments. We consider ourselves fortunate in our corps of teachers. The only new teacher, Miss Cutting, in the Intermediate grade, has proved her worth and aided by her experience and ability the work in her room has progressed admirably.

After a year of absence we welcomed back Mrs. Parsons to the Potter school.

The health of the children has been uniformly good and no epidemic of disease has been present. On account of one case of poliomyelitis in town we were deprived of the services of Miss Kennedy for a few weeks, but the work was uninterrupted by Mrs. West ably substituting for the remainder of the term.

A new independent heating plant is being installed for the exclusive use of the school rooms in the town hall which we are confident will prove advantageous. Some minor changes and alterations to meet state requirements have also been added. The sincere co-operation of parents with the teachers and committee is urged to bring the schools up to the highest efficiency in preparing the children of today to become able citizens in the future.

WILLARD B. SEGUR,

Chairman School Committee.

School Superintendent's Report

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF ENFIELD:—

I herewith submit for your consideration my ninth annual report, which is the thirteenth of this series.

ATTENDANCE

The per cent. of attendance for the school year ending June 30, 1916, was 95, the same as last year. In some cases the law governing the attendance and employment of minors is not complied with. The number of cases of tardiness was one hundred twenty-one, thirty-seven less than last year. I trust that the parents will read carefully the law relating to school attendance which follows:

An Act relative to School Attendance and to the Employment of Minors

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter forty-four of the Revised Laws, as amended by chapter three hundred and twenty of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and five, by chapter three hundred and eighty-three of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and six, and by section one of chapter seven hundred and seventy-nine of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen, is hereby further amended by striking out, in the thirtieth line, the word "five," and inserting in place thereof the word:—seven,—and by striking out the word "ten," in the same line, and insertiing in place thereof the word:—fourteen,—so as to read as follows:—Section 1. Every child between seven and fourteen years of age, every child under sixteen years of age who does not possess such ability to read, write and spell in the English language as is required for the completion of the fourth grade of the public schools of the city or town in which he resides, and every child under sixteen years of age who has not received an employment certificate as provided in this act and is not engaged in some regular employment or business for at least six hours per day or has not the written permission of the superintendent of schools of the city or town in which he resides to engage in profitable employment at home, shall attend a public day school in said city or town or some other day school approved by the school committee, during the entire time the public schools are in session, subject to such exceptions as are provided for in sections four, five and six of this chapter, and in section three of chapter forty-two of the Revised Laws, as amended by chapter four hundred and thirty-three of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and two, and by chapter five hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and eleven; but such attendance shall not be required of a child whose physical or mental condition is such as to render attendance inexpedient or impracticable, or who is being otherwise instructed in a manner approved in advance by the superintendent of schools or the school committee. The superintendent of schools, or teachers in so far as authorized by said superintendent or by the school committee, may excuse cases of necessary absence for other causes not exceeding seven day sessions or fourteen half-day sessions in any period of six months. For the purpose of this section, school committees shall approve a private school only when the instruction in all the studies required by law is in the English language, and when they are satisfied that such instruction equals in thoroughness and efficiency, and in the progress made therein, the instruction in the public schools in the same city or town; but they shall not refuse to approve a private school on account of the religious teaching therein.

SECTION 2. Said chapter forty-four of the Revised Laws, as amended by section two of said chapter seven hundred and seventy-nine of the acts of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen, is hereby further amended by striking out the word "five," in the fourth line, and inserting in place thereof the word:—seven,— and by striking out the word "ten," in the same line, and inserting in place thereof the word:—fourteen,— so as to read as follows:—Section 2. Every person having under his control a child as described in section one shall cause him to attend school as therein required, and, if he fails for seven day sessions or fourteen half-day sessions within any period of six months while such control obtains, to cause such child so to attend school, he shall, upon complaint by an attendance officer and conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars, and no physical or mental condition which is capable of correction, or which renders the child a fit subject for special instruction at public charge in institutions other than public day schools, shall avail as defence under the provisions of this or the preceding section, unless it shall be made to appear that the defendant has employed all reasonable measures for the correction of the condition and the suitable instruction of the child.

Whoever induces or attempts to induce a child to absent himself unlawfully from school, or employs or harbors a child while school is in session, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. (Approved March 18, 1915.)

TEACHERS

All our schools are in charge of teachers who by training or experience are well qualified. Mrs. Parsons, who was given a year's leave of absence, returned at the beginning of the school year in September to her work in the Potter school. Miss Abbie Cutting has taught the sixth and seventh grades in the center grammar school. Her excellent work has been appreciated by the committee and parents.

The music has been in charge of Miss Florence Babb. The music in our schools has reached a high standard. The pupils can read easily and with expression. The music selected is from the best. Those who have heard our pupils sing in public appreciate the work of those who have been instrumental in accomplishing these results.

SCHOOLS

An exhibition of school work was given in the town hall in June. This year it will be given in the several school rooms. The work shown was not especially prepared but was taken from the daily work of the pupils during the year. I hope the parents and citizens will attend these exhibitions where they can learn what our schools are accomplishing.

The work in practical arts has been carried on in charge of the regular teachers. It is evident that many of our pupils should be trained along the industrial line. Industrial work is considered a part of regular school work and is carried on in most of the cities and towns in the state. The State Board of Education is preparing a course of study for the schools of the state. Industrial training is included in the course. I sincerely hope that the committee will feel that it is for the best interest for our schools to employ a special teacher for the industrial work or practical arts. This can be done without a special appropriation from the town.

Enfield has in the past, endeavored to keep abreast of the times. Her pupils have ranked high in scholarship. If she continues to maintain this position she must progress.

I take this opportunity to thank the committee for their confidence and co-operation, the teachers for their loyalty, and the citizens for their courtesy.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVAN R. LEWIS.

Report of Supervisor of Music

"All our life is music,
If we but touch the chords aright and in tune."

Public school music consists of Sight Singing, Songs and Written Work. Other elements, however, must be considered; among them interpretation, which calls for correct pronunciation, clear enunciation and an intelligent rendering of the sentiment of a song; and proper tone production, which may be secured by voice drills and correct breathing.

In all schools, individual slip singing is an important feature. It trains the eye and the memory, calls for accurate judgment and quick thinking, increases the pupil's self-control, requires intense concentration, and improves the ability to read at sight.

For Written Work, slip exercises, exercises from the music book or from the board, and supplementary songs are copied. In the upper grades they have copied hymns and songs in soprano, alto, tenor and bass.

The songs selected are melodious and pleasing, with proper range and illustrative of some theoretical point. In many cases, works of some famous composer are taken in a simplified form. Rote singing is a good example of imitation and helps to develop a musical taste. For the artistic rendition of a song, attention must be given to proper enunciation, for if the words are not heard distinctly, the song loses its beauty. It is especially interesting to have a variety of songs as follows:

September—Harvest songs.

October—Fall songs.

November—Thanksgiving music.

December—Christmas songs and carols.

January—Snow, skating and Jack Frost songs.

February—Valentine and George Washington songs.

March—Folk songs and lullabies.

April—Pussy Willow and spring songs.

May—Flower songs and Memorial music.

June—Standard familiar tunes and review those learned during the year.

Last May an exhibition was given in the Town Hall. All branches of work were exhibited including the written music work. The entertainment was all musical numbers, each room rendered two selections, one song being lively and cheerful and the other one more peaceful and quiet. The primary school sang a group of songs from the "Sun Bonnet Babies," with motions, each song suggestive of a certain day of the week.

The helpful spirit and co-operation of the superintendent, committee and teachers have made the work very pleasant for me and added largely to its profit for the children. To them and all others who have helped, I wish to express my gratitude and appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE M. BABB,

Supervisor of Music.
